MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

TUESDAY, MAY 26, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

A number of delegates from up the C. & M. arrived last night to be on the ground early for the Republican convention today. All indications point to the attendance of complete delegations from every precinct and the un-corking of an unusually large measure of Republicanism.

Mrs. George Schad will leave this morning for New Matamoras to make a short visit with friends.

Col. John Mills will give a picnic today in honor of his niece, Miss Elston. The party will go up the Muskingum on the Sonoma.

Mrs. W. H. Blinger, Mrs. Flanders and Miss Wehrs have issued cards to their lady friends for Friday afternoon of this week, from 4 until 8 o'clock.

Mr. Nelson Moore, of the Buckeye Pipe Line Company, is in Warren, Pa., on business.

Oscar Burchett, of Watertown, was in the city Monday night, enroute to Cincinnati to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias.

Saturday evening after the close of the Diamond Race Meet, the Loddell Cycling Club will entertain the visiting wheelmen at the Boat House.

At Cutler, this county, wells are drilling and rigs going up on five new locations.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Bosworth, Mrs. W. L. Rolston, Miss Grace Rolston and Mrs. Clara Putnam left yesterday for Springfield to attend the convention of the Episcopal Church, Southern Diocese of Ohio. On Wednesday evening a reception will be given the body by Governor Bushnell at his magnificent home in Springfield.

Mr. Frank R. Greene, wife and daughter, of Chicago, are at Hon. J. B. Greene's, Newport.

The Washington county Jury Commissioners met Monday to select names for jury drawings for the coming year. The vacancy caused by the illness of T. W. Moore was filled by Capt. A. B. Little.

Abner Hawkins and Clara Zentz, of this city, were united in marriage at the Unitarian parsonage Monday morning, May 25th, by Rev. E. A. Coll.

George Griffin left Monday afternoon for Mackaburg, where he has engaged in business.

Mayor Melsenhelder is determined that prizefighters shall get no hold in Marietta and has given the police department strict orders to report every violation of law of this nature. Section 6890 of the Revised Statutes makes it unlawful to engage in any prize-fight or sparring match, with or without gloves. Spectators are equally liable with participants as are also the owners or lessees of the ground or buildings where such contests are permitted to take place. The maximum penalty is a fine of $250, with an imprisonment attachment of three months.

The Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, is in session at Cincinnati this week. L. W. Ellenwood, of this city, J. A. Skinner, of New Matamoras, Mac Gano, of Sardis, and W. T. Powell, of Clarington, left for Cincinnati on Monday.

Lowest prices guaranteed, not for one day only, but for every day in the year. S. R. Van Metre & Co.

The City Board of Equalization met Monday at the Auditor's office and organized by electing Jacob Gephart president, J. B. Hovey, vice president and Auditor W. A. Patterson, secretary.

Miss Blanche Simmons, who has been employed in the office of Recorder Atkey, has accepted a clerical position in the Probate Court and began her work there Monday.

While in this city Sunday Mrs. W. E. Mason received from her father-in-law Wm. Mason, Sr., of Hyman, Pa., a fine present in the shape of a thoroughbred Jersey heifer one year old from Mr. Mason's stock farm.

Ed. Mullen, charged with selling liquor in West Virginia without having paid the special government tax, was taken to Parkersburg Monday for trial.

Mr. J. C. Longfellow was struck in the right eye Monday by a piece of flying lath and received a painful injury. The bruised optic was dressed by Dr. Gallagher.

Deputy U. S. Marshal W. E. Mason and wife were in the city Sunday and left Monday morning for Columbus, Ohio, to attend the trial of the man charged with shooting the U. S. postal agent by sending obscene matter through the mails.

The Beech Grove Presbyterian church will give an ice cream social at Mr. Wm. Daywood's, Friday evening May 30th. All are invited.

Capt. L. S. McCormick is expected to arrive in the city on the Z. & O. this morning at 10:40. He is just from Arizona.

Mr. D. W. Powell, of Allegheny City, came down to his old home Sunday, to see friends and transact business.

Careful economical Clothing buyers deal with us. Values received guaranteed on every purchase. S. R. Van Metre & Co.

Mr. W. H. Armistage is in the city, delivering his new Directory of the City of Marietta, Ohio. The work is very complete, and must prove of great value to business men and citizens generally, to say nothing of the convenience it will afford strangers visiting the Pioneer City. In the directory are listed 5,084 names, and Mr. Armistage reckons that at a very low estimate—the very lowest—Marietta has a population of 12,310 people.

Following are the entries for the five-mile handicap race at the Diamond Race Meet Saturday: C. S. Darrow, Marietta, Wm. J. Bay, Ironton, P. W. Athey, Belpre, E. R. Koerner, Marietta, J. K. C. R. Oldham and daughter Elise, of Mountsville, W. Va., are guests of Mrs. Mary Oldham, Second street.

Marietta wheelmen will be pleased to learn that Mr. J. K. Bowman, of Canal Winchester, Ohio, is entered for the Diamond Meet. Mr. Bowman is the plucky rider who arrived on a late train to enter the races last fall, jumped into his racing suit while the starter held the bunch a minute for him, and ran into a barbed wire fence on the first round. He was horribly cut, but from that day to this has never offered a complaint. The wire will not be there next Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Maxon, who have been visiting relatives in Marietta for several days, will return home to Decatur, Ill., today.

In Squire Guyton's court Monday a warrant was issued for the arrest of John Shears, of Turkey Hen, on the charge of petit larceny. It is alleged that he took a wool tier belonging to George Ammon.

Sisyphus was the ancient hero condemned by the gods to push a big boulder up a hill forever, lest it should roll down and crush him. When the myth-makers got up that story they must have been thinking of dyspepsia; for there is certainly no other trouble on earth that keeps you so everlastingly struggling against being crushed into utter despair. Anything that cures dyspepsia lifts about half the weight of misery that crushes mankind, and w-mankind.

The trouble with most of the so-called dyspepsia cures, is that they don't cure. They give only temporary relief. Indigestion usually extends all through the digestive tract, from the stomach clear down to the large intestine; the liver too is frequently involved, the trouble being torpid and inactive. For a thorough, radical, permanent cure you must have the whole digestive organism set right. Not violently stirred up, but regulated. Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pills will do it. They stimulate the digestive juices of the stomach; invigorate the liver and help it to actively secrete the bile; and act gently on the bowels to promote a regular healthy movement. This means a complete and lasting cure of digestive troubles.

The "Pillots" are not a severe cathartic, for they act surely. The dose can be regulated to your needs, and when the "Pillots" have done their work they can be discontinued. You don't become a slave to their use, as with other pills. If the druggist suggest some gripping pill that gives him more profit, think what will break you loose.
